20241040*US*Miscellaneous Questions*CHECKLIST

The following is a list of common items needed for your tax return preparation. Please review and provide the following, as applicable. This list is not exhaustive; provide any other documentation that may apply.

Form(s) W-2 (wages, etc.)

Form(s) 1099, including:

- Form 1099-INT (interest) and Form 1099-DIV (dividends)
- Consolidated Forms 1099 (brokerage statements - include all pages, including detail)
- Form 1099-NEC (nonemployee compensation) and Form 1099-MISC (miscellaneous payments)
- Form 1099-R (retirement distributions)
- Form 1099-K (third-party/credit card processor payments)
- Form 1099-G (government payments, including refunds and unemployment benefits)
- Form 1099-Q (payments from qualified education programs)

Form(s) 1095-A (Health Insurance Marketplace Statement)

Schedule(s) K-1 (income/loss from partnerships, S-corporations, trusts, etc.)

Form(s) 1098-T (tuition statement)

Form(s) 1098 (mortgage interest) and property tax statements

Settlement statements pertaining to real estate purchase, sale, and financing/refinancing transactions

If you own rental property and have a property manager, include the manager's year-end statement. Do not enter these amounts on the organizer, include only the amounts paid outside the management company.

Tenant deposits received and paid out for rental properties

If you have a business, and use bookkeeping software, do not enter these amounts on the organizer. Instead, provide an Accountant's Copy or backup of any QuickBooks files, or contact us for the correct reports to print from your program.

Receipts/invoices for any business capital asset purchases over $2,500 each

Any notices from the IRS and other taxing authorities received during the year

Written acknowledgment/receipts from charities for any charitable donations, even if you do not itemize

OTHER REMINDERS

Remember to review your beneficiary elections for all retirement accounts (IRAs, 401(k)s, etc.) annually.

If you are over age 73 and have any retirement accounts, you are required to make minimum distributions from these accounts every year (with limited exceptions). If over 70 1/2, you are also allowed to send your RMDs directly to charities, which may be a better option in many cases.

If your business sells to customers in a state that has sales tax, you may be required to file sales tax reports in that state. Please let us know if you have questions about this.

It is important to discuss any large gifts you are considering giving to others, or you may receive before actually transferring the property. If you are considering gifting anything, or someone is considering giving you a large gift, please contact us.
